

LES BOUCLES

Prénom : _____

A large tracing exercise consisting of three vertical columns of dashed lines. Each column contains six loops, each with a five-petaled flower in the center. The loops are connected by a continuous dashed line that starts at the top and ends with an arrowhead at the bottom. The first column is on the left, the second in the middle, and the third on the right.